French and British Are Pounding at Both Flanks of Desperately Pressed Germans.

Americans Serving Continuously in Sector Where Great and Extraordinarily Successful Drives Are Being Carried Forward.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, August 3.—Major General Hunter Liggett, commanding the First American Corps is in active charge of that corps on the center of the allied drive in the Aisne-Marne salient, General March, chief of staff, today told newspaper correspondents at the semi-weekly conference. The American divisions forming this corps are serving continuously on this sector, the control of which is in the command of Major General Liggett as commander of the first major American unit to get into action in France.

The number of American divisions in this sector has been increased to eight. General March announced that it was the Rainbow Division which met and defeated the Prussian Guards during the present week.

The French and British pounding at both flanks, General March said, has resulted in the collapse of the German resistance August 1st, and the French walked into Soissons.

General March said the War Department was still without any information as to the number of American casualty in the fighting since the present battle began.

HUN OFFICIALS PAID THOUSANDS FOR KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Shows Rumely Was One of The Men Who Passed Money to Agents.

By Associated Press Dispatch. New York, August 3.—The German government paid several hundred thousand dollars to agents in this country before the United States entered the war, in return for information regarding American munitions and crops, according to a statement made today by Alfred L. Becker, deputy State Attorney General, who is investigating expenditure of Teuton funds in this country.

Evidence which has been obtained through the inquiry indicates the money reached these agents through Dr. Edward A. Rumley.

TAKING OF SOISSONS IS ONLY INCIDENT IN GRAND SCHEME OF ALLIED COMMAND

FISMES, GREAT MILITARY BASE OF GERMANS, IS NOW REPORTED TO BE IN FLAMES

London Reports Rolling Up of German Lines South of The Aisne and That Allies Have Reached a Point South of Braine.

(By The War Editor of The Associated Press)

The right wing of the German armies south of the Aisne appears to have crumbled before the attack of the allies.

Occupying Soissons, apparently, was only a small incident in the grand scheme that is being worked out by the allied commanders. After that historic city had been cleared of Germans the allies swept eastward along the south bank of the Aisne.

While this movement was going on the allies on the plateau southeast of Soissons swept forward and London reports they have rolled up the German lines south of the Aisne and reached a point south of Braine, on the Vesle river, about 11 miles from Soissons.

Coincident with the advance the allies on the center and right have moved ahead until, as nearly as can be ascertained from reports, they are in Rosnay, only a mile and a half from the Vesle river.

Further west they have reached Serzy-Et-Prin, about five miles from Fismes, the German base on the front, which is reported in flames.

FRENCH CROSS THE VESLE

PARIS, AUGUST 3.—(Associated Press Cable)—French advance forces have reached the River Vesle and are preparing to cross the stream. The Germans are continuing their retreat toward the River Aisne.

AI SNE LINE IS MENACED

PARIS, AUGUST 3.—(Associated Press Cable)—The French army is holding several fords across the Vesle river. The Germans have evidently given up the idea of making a stand there.

The Germans are retreating north of the Vesle with great precipitation. Great fires are raging in the territory evacuated by the enemy. The German right wing on the north bank of the Aisne is in a dangerous situation and it is expected they will be unable to hold their present positions.

FRENCH PUSH ON TO AISNE PAST SOISSONS

Germans Are Executing Local Retirement in the Region of Albert.

Every Indication Is That Every Intention to Launch an Offensive Is Abandoned.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, August 3.—The Germans are executing a local retirement to the east bank of the Aisne river, in the region of Albert, on a front of three or four miles, according to news received in London today.

The German hold on the west bank of the Aisne in this region had been precarious and it seemed to be tenable only if it were intended to be made use of in the starting of an offensive. The retirement appears to be the abandonment of any offensive in that quarter at present.

On the main battle front in the Soissons region the French, after completing their occupation of Soissons, have occupied the south bank of the Aisne between Pommiers and Venizel, a distance of approximately five and one-half miles, advice received today show.

GRASSHOPPER MAY BE ABANDONED AT NO DISTANT DATE

Rumors Insist That Branch of D. T. & I. Railroad, Extending from Sedalia to Kingman, Distance of 32 Miles, May Be Abandoned Because It Loses Money to Mother Road.

Rumors are current, and in fact have been for some little time to the effect that the D. T. & I. railroad will soon abandon the "Grasshopper" branch of the system, extending from Kingman in Clinton County, to Sedalia, in lower Madison county, because the branch is, and for years has been losing the system money at the rate said to be between $5,000 and $10,000 annually.

The rumors are beginning to create a great deal of interest in the towns of Sedalia, Bookwater, Jeffersonville, Blanchester, Kingman, Port William, Mt. Pleasant and McKays, through which places the Grasshopper passes.

The rumors current are to the effect that after the present harvest is over, the abandonment will be made, temporarily at least, although there is a possibility that the road may be entirely dismantled and abandoned. However, no official information has been given out concerning the rumored abandonment of the branch.

The Grasshopper branch of the road is 32 miles in length, and has never been greatly improved, the rails being very uneven and not permitting of any great speed.

It has been the custom to run one train each way each day, and a vast amount of live stock, grain, hay, etc., have been shipped over this route. If it is abandoned, other shipping points must be obtained by hundreds of farmers, and long hauls overland must be made by business men in the towns not touched by other railroads. It is because of the above reasons that protest is beginning to formulate where the rumors of abandonment are current.

STILL RECOVERING

At Barker, who spent two or three weeks in the Fayette Hospital recovering from injuries sustained when Marshal Whitmore of Sedalia drove his machine against a telephone pole while traveling at high speed, killing another man, is now at his home in Sedalia, slowly improving.

CHARGES CRUELTY ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Florence Rogers, against Wm. M. Rogers, is the style of the latest divorce action in the common pleas court.

The plaintiff states that she was married to the plaintiff in Toledo, August 7, 1915, and that after repeatedly moving about from town to town, her husband, a baker, induced her to come to this city to visit an aunt, and since that time she has not heard from him. Plaintiff, who is represented by Gregg, Patton & Gregg, declares that the defendant repeatedly struck and abused her, and was untrue to her. She asks divorce, alimony and restoration to her maiden name.

"HAPPY JACK" IS UNDER SUSPICION

Deputy State Fire Marshal John Pemberton visited Sabina this week to look into the causes of the fire that destroyed the Rapp store-house filled with straw, some weeks ago. His investigation led him to believe that the fire was started by some boys smoking in the rear of the building, and after some inquiries, came to the Court and started an inquiry about Sheridan Carr, aged 8 years, better known as "Happy Jack". It was learned in Sabina that he had gone with his mother to make his home in Adams County, and it was there the officer found him. He was brought before the Juvenile Judge and confessed to smoking cigarettes and stated that he might have dropped one that was still burning.

By law, the boy can not be sent to the Children's Home, being a delinquent.

Being under 10 years of age, the Minimum age for commitment to the Reformatory, he can not be sent there and there was nothing for the Court to do but place him in the custody of his father, as a ward of the Court.

Whether or not the lad was responsible for the burning of the big store-house is not determined, but it has been suspected and is said to be the belief of the Fire Marshal, that the cause of the fire was a mislaid cigarette stub or sparks from pipes or cigarettes very likely in the hands of boys.

ATTENTION SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Fayette county Sunday school campaign will begin tomorrow and continue five weeks. Each school is requested to make a prompt report to the township secretary in which the school is located. These secretaries will send the report of the total attendance and the percent of the population that attended Sunday school, based upon the 1910 census report, to the county secretary. A complete report of the county by townships will be made in the local press each week.

CHIEF D. L. MOORE'S NEPHEW IS WOUNDED

Chief of Police D. L. Moore's nephew Neal Yowell, of Greenfield, who is a member of Greenfield Company G, has written to Chief Moore that he is in a hospital, having been wounded in action, but is recovering very rapidly, and he hopes will soon be able to be out and after the Boches once more. The young man left with Company G nearly one year ago.

AMERICA!

GOD built a continent of glory and filled it with treasures untold. He studded it with sweet-flowing fountains and traced it with long winding streams. He carpeted it with soft rolling plains and columned it with thundering mountains. He planted it with deep-shadowed forests and filled them with song.

Then he called unto a thousand peoples and summoned the bravest among them. They came from the ends of the earth, each bearing a gift and a hope. The flow of adventure was in their eyes and in their hearts the glory of hope.

And out of the bounty of earth and the labor of men, out of the longing of hearts and the prayers of souls, out of the memory of ages and the hopes of the world, God fashioned a nation in love, blessed it with purpose sublime and called it—America. — By Rabbi A. H. Silver, Cleveland Temple.

WOMEN WORKERS NEEDED IN FRANCE

Washington, July 30.—Because the American Red Cross, the Young Men's Christian Association and other allied bodies doing war work in France are unable to obtain a sufficient number of women workers, the war department prohibition against granting passports to relatives of officers and men in the American expeditionary forces was modified today by General March, chief of staff, so as to permit sisters of soldiers to serve as workers under certain conditions.—Ohio State Journal.

This announcement will be read with interest by a number of people in the city, who have relatives or friends that are ready to enter service, but have been barred on account of the rigid ruling.

SERIOUS CHARGES

Serious charges were filed in Mayor Dahl's court, this week, by Ida Flint, on behalf of her sister, Neoma Flint, against Earl Saunders and Carl Lloyd, and the offense of which they are charged is alleged to have occurred July 18th, near this city.

Because of the absence from the city of Saunders the charges were not formally made public until Saturday, when he appeared, entered a plea of not guilty, and his preliminary hearing was set for Monday night at seven o'clock. His bond was fixed at $500.

Lloyd waived examination and was bound over under $500 bond.

CASE IS CARRIED TO APPEALS COURT

In the Fayette County Court of Appeals J. S. Wilson, as plaintiff in error, against Ed Darlington, defendant in error, asks that the judgment of the lower court be reversed because of alleged error.

The case originally was Ed Darlington against J. S. Wilson, and the judgment sought was $273, growing out of the purchase of some hogs. The jury in the lower court awarded the plaintiff judgment in the sum of $260. Rankin & Rankin represent the plaintiff in error.

WAS PRISONER ABOARD U BOAT FIFTEEN DAYS

English Captain Relates Thrilling Adventures When the Allied Destroyers Drop Depth Bombs Near a German Submarine Which Held Him Prisoner.

(Associated Press Correspondence)
LONDON, AUGUST 1.—Sensations experienced in a German submarine while depth bombs were being discharged overhead were described recently by a British merchant ship captain who was a prisoner for fifteen days aboard a U-boat.

In an interview the English commander, captured by the Germans after his vessel had been torpedoed, related how the depth bombs shook the undersea craft and created consternation among the sailors. In one instance the faces of the Germans became white with fear and all stood trembling after the first shot, which was not near enough to destroy the submarine. All were expecting a second discharge.

The English commander reached his native land after having been imprisoned for months at Brandenburg, where he said, he and other ship officers at times had been harnessed to carts which were used to haul mail and packages from the postoffice to the prisoners' camp.

Seven vessels were torpedoed by the Germans while the British captain was aboard the U-boat. Previously the English officer had been in command of a merchant vessel which had also met its fate at the hands of a submarine crew.

"On the third day after I had been taken prisoner," said the captain, "just after the midday meal, I gathered that the submarine was about to carry out an attack on a convoy which had just been sighted. The U-boat approached submerged for some distance and torpedoed a large steamer. Our whereabouts apparently were detected. I was told, by an allied cruiser for we moved rapidly to a great depth. "Hardly had the submarine reached an even keel when we heard and felt a tremendous explosion which caused the U-boat to vibrate from stem to stern. It was a depth charge from the cruiser.

"The effect on the crew was evident. All stood trembling with faces blanched with fear, not attempting to speak, expecting a second charge, the result of which might mean the destruction of the boat and without the slightest chance for us to escape.

"There is no doubt in my mind of the mental attitude of the crew, for it was not the first experience of the men with a depth charge, and they had learned from others in the service what terrible weapons depth bombs were in the hands of skillful seamen.

"For some moments we waited; engines were stopped and all means were taken to prevent giving indication of our position. Minutes seemed like hours in such a situation. I'll admit that I was turning over in my mind whether I should see my family again. No additional explosion took place, however, and after remaining some eighteen fathoms deep for a long period we continued our voyage.

"A few days later we had another experience with depth charges, or 'wasser bomben' as the German sailors call them. A sailing vessel had just been sunk by shell fire when two allied destroyers were sighted, and down we went. By the microphones the propellers could be heard, and as the vessels came nearer and nearer we in the submarine could hear the thudding quite distinctly. To and fro the destroyers went searching for us. Evidently they picked up a clue, for there were two explosions ahead but not so near us as that from the cruiser, but quite close enough to cause the submarine to tremble and then roll about as though in a heavy sea."

SMOKERS ARE HIT HARD IN REVISION OF WAR TAX BILL

(American Press)

Washington, Aug. 3.—Heavy increases in the present war tax on tobacco, cigars and cigarettes were agreed to by the house ways and means committee as part of the new $8,000,000,000 revenue bill. The tax imposes three times the existing rates on some items of the schedule and is expected to raise approximately $340,000,000, in comparison with the present $165,000,000 revenue from tobacco.

The committee has made substantial headway in its work and some of its members predicted that all danger of delay in reporting the bill is over and that the total of $8,000,000,000, the greatest volume of revenue from taxation ever contemplated in the nation's history, will be provided for and the bill in form to report when the house reassembles Aug. 19.

There is a large gap, however, between the total estimated from the excess profits and income tax sections and the $6,000,000,000 allotted to those sections in the original plan. The committee accordingly went back to the income surtax paragraphs and, while there was no definite action, it was evident there will be heavy increases in surtax rates.

The action as to war taxes on tobacco was independent of the special license tax on manufacturers of tobacco, in which double the present tax was imposed on the basis of the annual sales.

Chairman Kitchin made this statement: "The committee reached the following tentative decision as to the tobacco schedule: On cigars weighing more than three pounds per 1,000, tax increased from the present $1 per 1,000 to $2 per 1,000; cigars weighing more than three pounds per 1,000 and retailing at not more than 4 cents each, increased from $2 to $5 per 1,000; cigars retailing at more than 4 cents and not more than 15 cents each, increased from $6 to $15 per 1,000; between 15 and 20 cents each, increase from $8 to $20 per 1,000, and those retailing at 20 cents or more each, increase from $10 to $30 per 1,000.

"Cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per 1,000 and retailing at less than 2 cents each, increased from $2.05 to $5 per 1,000; those of same weight retailing at 2 cents or more, increased from $2.05 to $8 per 1,000; those weighing more than three pounds per 1,000, increased from $4.80 to $10 per 1,000. Tobacco tax increased from 13 to 30 cents per pound. Cigarette paper and tubes, tax doubled."

CALLED MEETING

The executive board of the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense, will meet with Mrs. Daniel H. VanWinkle, president, Monday afternoon at half past two o'clock. It is important that every member be present.

URGES SUPPORT

Washington, Aug. 3.—President Wilson extended his drive for suffrage votes into the Republican party when he wrote a letter to Senator Baird of New Jersey, urging the latter to support the suffrage amendment in the senate. The president said:

"The whole subject of woman suffrage has been very much in my mind of late and has come to seem to me part of the international situation as well as a question of capital importance to the United States. I believe that our present position as champions of democracy throughout the world would be greatly strengthened if the senate would follow the example of the house of representatives in passing the pending amendment. I, therefore, take the liberty of writing to call the matter to your serious attention in this light and to express the hope that you will deem it wise to throw your vote and influence on the side of this great and now critical reform."

Shade and Water for Hogs

Donald Acklin of Perrysburg, one of the state and federal representatives working for the increased production of pork in Ohio this season, is calling attention to the need of shade and water for hogs at this time.

"During the hot summer months," Mr. Acklin says, "shade and water are of the most vital importance in the successful production of pork. If nature has not provided shade in your pasture and lots, build some sort of shelter in a fence corner. Uncomfortable animals do not thrive.

"If you are not provided with a spring or running water, an automatic waterer is almost indispensable in hot weather. Clean water is essential. A clean wallow should also be provided. Concrete wallows are inexpensive to construct and aside from serving the purpose of keeping hogs cool, they will keep the herd absolutely free from lice if a coal tar dip is used in the water."

County Agent Supervisors

Four district supervisors of county agent work have been recently appointed. The men selected for these places have been taken from the counties in which they have been serving as agents. R. D. Long of Cuyahoga County is the new supervisor for northeastern Ohio; C. A. Mahan of Sandusky County, for northwestern Ohio; W. W. Brownfield of Washington County, for southeastern Ohio; and George R. Eastwood of Miami County, for southwestern Ohio.

It will be the duties of these men to visit the several county agents in their districts, particularly the new agents, to assist them in a general way with the conduct of their projects. The headquarters of the supervisors will be at the Ohio State University.

Don't Discuss The Unpleasant

Now, more than ever, when we are all wrought up to the highest pitch of excitement, when our anxieties, our fears and our hopes keep us gripped constantly in a bad case of "nerves" we should be careful of our talk.

Above all, we should avoid "breaking out" in loud expressions and arguments in street talk about rumors or fact.

Even if we know the facts it is not wholesome to be repeating the sensational because our hearers may get a wrong impression and commit a grave injustice.

Men's reputations are sacred and it's the easiest thing in the world to destroy absolutely that which it has taken years to build up just by the use of a few words that had better been left unsaid.

If we can't talk about pleasant things we can at least avoid the unpleasant and the sensational. It can't possibly do any good to keep up a discussion of unpleasant happenings, especially here at home, and it may do immense harm.

Peace Problems

We wonder sometimes whether in the intense concentrated effort, under which all men are laboring, our wise and patriotic statesmen have considered what course will be pursued after the war. As a matter of fact these immense problems are of no immediate concern, there is much more vital work now to occupy the attention and the ability of the statesmen and the people generally. As a matter of fact, too, even a discussion of these questions at this time would be purely a waste of time. We must think of the present and its demands, trusting the future to bring the proper solution of the perplexities that are now piling up for the coming of peace.

Conditions in America have perhaps undergone a more revolutionary change than they have in any nation involved in the war.

America's pronounced success has been due to the nicety of balance maintained between state and individual. Germany's undoing has been the absolute supremacy of the state—intense centralization and the submerging of individual rights and privileges. Russia's tragic condition is due to the supremacy of the individual and the sweeping away of all governmental restraint.

In the rush of war's necessity America has swung, very properly, to the centralization of all its force and wealth in the government. For the time the individual must be lost night of in the collective need.

To obtain centralization in patriotic, sane, level headed America was a comparatively easy task. Will everything revert to normal—will that exquisite balance which insures the perpetuity of our institutions be restored as a matter of course—after the war comes to a close? Knowing the American people there can be no doubt about that question. They know what liberty means, they know where individual rights stop short and national rights become supreme.

We need not worry about how or when the railroads are to get back, if at all, into private hands, or the telegraph, or the foodstuffs.

Peace will bring forward discussions and disagreements on these vital questions, but it will bring its solution also to a people who know and who appreciate.

No one need borrow any trouble about the future in America. Our liberties are safe for the time being in the custody of a government which is of our own creation.

The Proper Spirit

It is rumored that the government is preparing to take over the street railways and city transportation utilities of some of the larger cities of America. The argument in favor of such action is that the nation can't afford to have the thousands of munitions factory workers employed in the great industrial centers delayed in being transported to and from work.

It is astonishing when we look about us and observe just how far out that great need of the government reaches and how many activities, public and private, it embraces as being directly or indirectly related to war work.

A street railway "magnate" on Wednesday, stated that he did not know whether or not there was any foundation for the rumor, but anticipating further inquiries, announced that with the city transportation lines, as with everything else, the government was going to do just as it thought best and whatever the government thought best was going to be accepted as the best without objection.

That's the American spirit, existing in every walk of life which has made America's marvelous accomplishments possible. It is the American understanding acquiescence and co-operation that can't fail to win out.

Use of Ships for Other Purposes Seriously Reduces the Trade Between U. S. and Rich Countries of South America.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Commercial relations between the United States and South America are in a serious condition because of the war. The lack of shipping has caused a decrease in the amount of manufactured goods exported to Argentina, and the factories of that country are unable to meet the demand. Some of the factories require raw materials that have formerly been obtained in the United States and have been compelled to shut down or greatly to curtail their forces.

The entrance of the United States into the war marked the end of extensive shipping between this country and Argentina. Besides a few steamships, some sailing vessels still visit Argentina, according to Consular advices, but they are so small that navigation is dangerous and they do not even approximate the demands of commerce. The most needed articles are heavy iron castings and coal.

Argentine business men are greatly concerned because some of the vessels arriving at Buenos Aires have come in ballast, caused, they say, by the fact that they were sent away from the United States hurriedly to get the cargoes of products in Argentina that are needed in this country.

The United States has a credit of $60,000,000 in Buenos Aires which will be increased, according to this information, by $40,000,000 to be used as a basis of exchange in trade. It is said this situation requires diplomatic arrangement and that this is one of the affairs to occupy the attention of Ambassador Naon, who has just returned to Washington after six months absence.

Materials from Argentina sought by the United States and the other nations at war with Germany include beef, sheep, hides and wool, principally.

There were 3,000,000 head of cattle exported, principally to the United States, England and France last year. To meet the situation caused by the lack of ships the Argentine government has decided to change several old war ships to merchant vessels and to buy more ships wherever they can be found. This is another of the problems with which Ambassador Naon will deal.

Similar conditions are reported from Chile. Exports from the United States of manufactured goods have been virtually suspended except on a limited number of articles. Complaint is made that a large number of vessels from the United States arrive at Chilean ports in ballast, to bring nitrates to the United States. Urgent requests have been made to this country to permit those vessels to carry cargoes of needed commodities.

The majority of the following people have held a picnic every year together since their school days. This year they met, Wednesday, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hankins, Seafair. Perfect success crowned the plans of the Charlotte Tuttle Sisterhood in giving a birthday party for Mrs. J. T. Tuttle, teacher of the class, Friday night at the home of the President, Mrs. Regina U. Staubs.

It was a complete surprise to Mrs. Tuttle to find forty members of the class assembled at Oak Lawn and rushing out with birthday greetings when she stopped with one of the class, who had taken her driving, presumably for a call.

The class fully appreciates the fact that in Mrs. Tuttle they have an exceptionally able and conscientious teacher, and that her talent and her personality have built up one of the most efficient classes engaged in Sunday School work. Although taken so unawares, Mrs. Tuttle rose to the occasion responsively and warmly expressed her gratitude for the courtesy shown her.

A delicious picnic supper was served on the beautiful lawn. The special feature was a big birthday cake, blazing with candles.

Mrs. Staubs, President, managed the affair with the utmost smoothness and dexterity assisted by the class members.

The evening was spent in contests, games and music. In the penny contests Mrs. Chas. Porter won a dainty box of candy and Velma Reno and Stanley Mark won the consolation. In the medical trunk contest, Mrs. Leo Hidy and Marion Nunn won the prize a box of stationery and Floyd Crone and Mrs. Porter the consolation.

Mrs. Hidy was assisted throughout the evening by Misses Ho and Yvonne Baker. A dainty luncheon was served and at a late hour the guests departed declaring it a very enjoyable evening and wishing Mr. Freshour luck in his new enterprise.

The G. R. C. of Sugar Grove met with Mrs. Harry Silcott, Thursday. Fourteen members and three visitors were present.

After the lesson Red Cross work was taken up, the members working on the Red Cross quilt, the society is making for a base hospital in France.

During the enjoyable social hour dainty refreshments were served.

DOZENS OF COMBS IN THIS MYSTERY

Mrs. Elizabeth Gates, residing on West Market street, is endeavoring to solve a mystery that is extraordinary to say the least, and in her efforts she has asked the police to assist her.

The mystery is the sudden appearance of four cases of pocket combs, one of which was left on the back door step by a strange man, and the other three cases, each containing about one dozen combs, were found in a suitcase which a member of the family had had shipped from Cleveland.

The suitcase containing the three cases of combs was two days late when it reached the Gates home, it seems, and on Friday morning a stranger appeared and left a case of combs on the rear step of the residence. Later when the suitcase was opened (which had arrived in the morning) the three additional cases of combs were discovered, although they had not been in the suitcase when it was shipped from Cleveland.

Suspecting some plot to spread disease of some kind the combs have been turned over to the authorities, who are now making an investigation. Mrs. Gates is at a complete loss to account for the presence of the combs either in the suitcase or on her back steps.

JAP BUSINESS MEN RESTLESS

(Associated Press Correspondence) Tokyo, July 29.—Apparent tendency by Japanese business men to oppose intervention in Siberia has been reflected in business generally here.

The stock market has been oppressed with the idea of Siberian mobilization. Trading has fallen off and many shares have weakened. At times when it appeared that Japan had at least temporarily tabled the intervention question the market has rallied, becoming active with short covering, but the general investment public has remained strictly cautious showing disposition to sell at advancing prices.

Late in June the foreign trade fell off, the United States' extension of its lists of restricted imports virtually stopped Japan's growing shipment of skins and leathers. The American trade ban was enlarged so as to stop also Manila's export of hemp to Japan. If this is rigidly enforced Japan's braid industry will be reduced to an insignificant position and Great Britain's removal of its ban on hemp braids would come to naught.

Trade with Asiatic Russia was made possible by the reopening of the Siberian border, and matchstick importers have already reported their intention of buying afresh there, while bean oil men had a brighter prospect for their buying of soy beans.

The China trade has remained slack. The Japanese Cotton Spinners Association, for instance, reported that during ten days Japan shipped 1,809 bales less of yarns to China and other Oriental points. Trade with British India also has been slack.

OIL CAMOUFLAGE BY U-BOAT MEN

(Associated Press Correspondence) London, July 29.—Tricky German U-boat commanders have conceived a new plan designed to deceive crews of the allied submarine destroyers in the game of hide and seek in European waters. When a depth bomb is discharged and does not cripple or destroy the German under-sea boat, as sometimes happens, a quantity of oil is released by some device of the submersible and quickly rises to the water's surface.

The hope of the German U-boat captain is that the commander of the destroyer will see the oil, believe that the submarine has been wrecked and drop no more depth charges. Meanwhile, the German is endeavoring to escape.

American and British commanders of destroyers and submarine chasers discovered the scheme of the Germans some time ago and since then have been dropping depth bombs in greater numbers than previously, using the oil as a guide to the general location of their target.

"Oil camouflage" the American and British navy men call this latest German submarine trick.

GREAT BRITAIN IS CONFIDENT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, August 3.—Unshaken resolution to go forward to the final victory, increasing confidence because America has joined in the great conflict and prediction of a complete triumph of the Allied arms were voiced today in a series of statements from leading Englishmen, on Great Britain's part in the four years of war ending August 4th. The statements, issued by the British Bureau of Information follow:

By the Earl of Reading, British Ambassador and High Commissioner at Washington:

"The fourth anniversary of our entry into the war finds the nation stern and resolute. Success and reverse have met with the same unflinching fortitude and never has the spirit of the people been finer nor the confidence higher.

"Sustained in their continuous and unwearied effort by the love of liberty, Navy, Army and civilians have alike done great deeds. At the outset the Navy swept the sea, and our original British Army, some 160,000 strong, withstood with France and Belgium the mighty onrush of German millions. That tiny army handed down its spirit and tradition to the hosts that subsequently responded to the country's call.

"In every sphere of war activity the men and women of Britain are taking an ever-increasing share, and how long may be the duration of the war, and whatever its future cost in blood and treasure, the British people will, in common with our Allies, never give up the struggle for the freedom of mankind.

"Coupled with that spirit of stern resolve which animates every section of the community, is the feeling of very real gratitude to America for her aid to the Allied cause. The glorious achievements of the never-ending stream of American soldiers which is pouring into Europe go far to make certain the final and complete triumph of our arms.

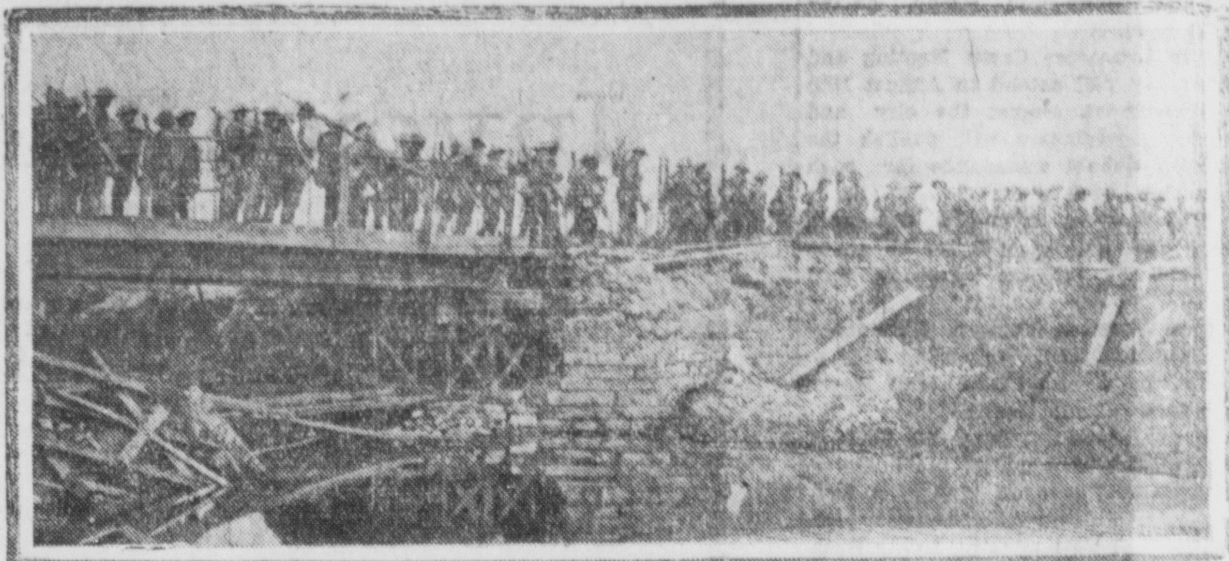

"The day is dawning; already the bright beams of the sun of liberty are piercing and dissipating the clouds of tyranny and despotism. Soon a new era of peace will open to the world."

BUCKEYE FRONT SETTING OF COBB ARTICLES IN POST

Rainbow Reveille for 29th of June Relates an Interesting Story Regarding Cobb While He Was Stationed with Major Rell G. Allen's Battalion.

In the June 29th issue of the "Rainbow Reveille", official publication of the 166th Regiment, of which M Company is a part, mention is made of Irvin S. Cobb, noted journalist who lectured at the Chautauqua in this city a few weeks ago, who recently wrote a story from information gathered while he was with Major Rell G. Allen's Battalion when the men went over the top for the first time. The article says:

In ever increasing and ever extending circles, like a ripple on a boundless sea, the name and fame of Regiment One-Six-Six is spreading. Right on the heels of the big story in The Stars and Stripes about the Ohio Yanks' unparalleled generosity in adopting 54 French war orphans, comes The Saturday Evening Post with a lead article by Mr. Irvin S. Cobb, the setting of which is the very duck boards trodden by the Buckeye volunteers in the Lorraine sector. "All American—Out to Them Wires" is the caption of the article, which appears in The Post on May 18, and which has now been read by "more than a million."

Jovial, jaunty Mr. Cobb spent several days with the 166th in early March and into his story he introduces personages, both commissioned and in the ranks, who are known throughout the Regiment. Of one private the author says, "He was supposed to be getting his baptism of fire. In reality he was reading a two-months-old copy of a certain daily paper printed in a certain Middle Western state—to wit, the sovereign state of Ohio. He belonged to a volunteer regiment, and in a larger sense to the Rainbow Division."

In a unique manner Mr. Cobb has chosen his title. It came from an incident when he was peering over the parapet in the salient held by the Ohioans. The officer, who was conducting him, (allusions in the story indicate that it was Captain Haulrich of Company I) asked Mr. Cobb if that was the first time he had had a close-up peep at No Man's Land. Before the famous journalist could answer, a private put in: "It might a-been No Man's Land once, cap'n, but from now on it's goin' to be all American out to them furthestest wires yonder." In the last paragraph of the story, Mr. Cobb mentions the first raid Ohio made into Boche land. Truly, says he, "for quite a while after that, No Man's Land was 'All American clear out to them furthestest wires'." The author claims that the title is the spirit of the Amex force.

CAPTURES FATHER ON BATTLE FRONT

(American Press)

Paris, Aug. 2.—An American soldier bringing in a squad of prisoners was startled to find his own father among them. The young American doubted the German's identity until enough confidential information was disclosed to convince him the man was his father, who had returned to German Poland several years before and had been forced into the army. The son immediately loosed a tirade of good advice against being a German. Then he threw his arms about his father's shoulders and promised him "the best in the house."

LOCAL HORSE WINS AT JAMESTOWN FAIR

On Thursday, the big day at the Jamestown Fair, Archie Burns captured first money from a big field of contenders in the 2:15 pace, purse $300.

That the race was hotly contested is proven by two outstanding features. It required six bruising heats before the best horse finally won and in the time made—2:14 1/2 best time—by the winner, Archie Burns.

In the first heat the local horse finished 7th; in the second heat, 3rd; in the third heat, 1st, and in the fourth heat, 2nd; and first in the last two heats.

Archie Burns, judging by his performance at Jamestown has a promising future before him. He is owned by J. L. Rothrock of this city and trained and managed by "Foxy" Briggs also of this city and driven by Chas. Gallagher, also a local horse lover, trainer and driver.

OFFER OF $700 FOR PIG REFUSED

Mr. J. W. Townsley, residing on The Chillicothe pike three miles southwest of this city, has a six-months' old Poland China pig for which he has just refused $700 offered by D. E. Coler, of Dayton Ohio.

When the offer was refused Coler then asked that the owner put a price on the animal, but this was declined. Townsley announcing that it was his intention to consign the pig to his fall sale.

ELKS PREPARE TO MOVE LODGE ROOM

Within the next few days the Washington Lodge of B. P. O. Elks will move into attractive quarters in the Melvin Block, over the Commercial Bank, the entire upper floor of the block being leased by the Elks and during the past few weeks has been undergoing changes to meet the demands of the Elks.

The removal to the new quarters will take place sometime next week, it is understood, the Elks at the present time being located in the Dahl-Campbell block on South Main street.

The new quarters, which were remodeled sometime ago and present a very inviting appearance, will be ample for lodge purposes until the new home of the Elks is completed on Market street.

COMPILING LISTS OF U. S. CASUALTIES

(American Press)

Washington, Aug. 2.—General Pershing cabled that there is much confusion collecting casualty lists because the Americans are scattered in British, French and American dressing stations and hospitals and there are certain difficulties of communication. Pershing said his lists were beginning to come in and that he was checking them and would forward them as quickly as possible. He gave no estimate.

FUMIGATOR SMOKE RESULTS IN ALARM TWO RUNS MADE

The fire alarms summoned the department from the Engine house within a space of three hours, Friday evening, the first being a small fire in the roof of one of the Burke cottages near the railroad near the ice factory, and the second being the residence of Mrs. Fulton, corner Pearl and Campbell streets.

The first fire was speedily extinguished with a property loss that will be covered by a dollar bill, and the second alarm was a false one, there being no fire at all, simply the smoke from fumigators used in the Fulton home.

The fumigators had been placed in the Fulton home early in the evening and the doors of the room where the fumigators had been placed were closed. When the doors of the room were opened there was naturally an outburst of smoke from the fumigators, which frightened Mrs. Fulton and she immediately turned in an alarm of fire.

It was found that there was no fire at all, simply the smoke from the fumigators.

NEWSPAPER MATERIAL CLIMBING SKYWARD

Another example of how the increased cost of materials is forcing up the price of newspapers is carried in the current issue of the Mt. Sterling Tribune, a four-page weekly publication which heretofore has been $1 per year, in which notice is given that the price effective September 1st will be $1.50 per year.

MAIL RECEIVED FROM OVERSEAS

Mail from overseas—the first in some time—reached this city Friday evening and Saturday morning, bringing letters from a great many soldiers from overseas.

The lapse of time during which no mail was received is supposed to have been due to the sinking of a steamship with mail aboard.

Don't Trust a Quack Doctor

You wouldn't put your health in the hands of a natural born untrained doctor.

You wouldn't want your teeth filled by a correspondence school dentist!

And you don't want your battery cared for by an untrained man—even if he says he knows all about batteries. Doctoring batteries is a profession with us—we are trained battery experts, and we recognize and treat all of the common battery ills.

Your battery ought to be tested—and you ought also to learn about Threaded Rubber Insulation—the most important battery improvement in years.

PAUL "JAP" STREVEY HAS HANDS FULL

The following article from a Toledo publication indicates that Paul Strevey, of this city, Physical Director in the Y. M. C. A. at Toledo, has his hands full handling the host of youngsters who desire to swim:

"It was out in Navarre park Tuesday afternoon. The free swimming lessons afforded Toledo's embryo citizens through the generosity of Y. M. C. A. Secretary Percy B. Williams, are under way.

"The work is in charge of J. P. (Jap) Strevey and his assistant, Welden Parker. It started back in the early spring, when the same officials began free instruction in aquatics for all kiddies, in the "Y" pool. So many entered the classes that longer effort to accommodate the army of would-be swimmers in the Y. M. C. A. pool, became impractical.

"It was then the park idea presented itself. With "Every Boy in Toledo a Swimmer" as a motto, the movement took its inception in the form of a Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday program in Navarre, Riverside and City parks from 2 to 4.

"From the beginning the idea proved to be a close second in popularity to the sand lot baseball organizations of Toledo's men-to-be. It grew like dandelions in a newly plowed garden and the result was more than gratifying.

"The female portion of the younger generation was not excluded, for the girls took part in the movement with no less enthusiasm, even though in much fewer numbers.

"Aquatics have proven so popular among those participating, that Toledo parents will have an opportunity to see their offspring in action. Some time during the middle of August Physical Director "Jap" Strevey will hold a swimming meet in all parks. The events will be open to all and the winners will gather for final honors at some future date.

"An effort will be made to establish swimming pools in all the city parks."

ORDER YOUR FERTILIZERS NOW

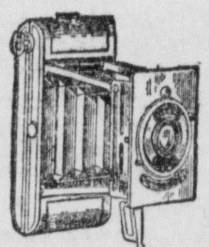

The Office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, has just issued the following announcement:

"Farmers are urged by the United States Department of Agriculture to place orders at once for fertilizer needed for fall wheat. It is very important, according to W. W. Mein, Assistant of the Secretary of Agriculture in charge of the licensing of fertilizer concerns under the Food Control Act, that dealers and manufacturers know farmers' needs as soon as possible, so that orders can be combined and car space used to the best advantage. Transportation difficulties require that freight cars be loaded to their rated capacity. Delay in ordering, it is said, may result in a repetition of last spring's experience when many farmers failed to receive their mixed fertilizer and acid phosphate until after planting time."

Orders can be filled in the "ACORN" or other leading brands of Williams & Clark's Fertilizers and delivered at your nearest station if you
